PARIS, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1906.

NUMBER 12.

ALL ABOARD FOR NORTH MIDDLETOWN.

A corps of civil engineers began the survey of the Paris, North Middletown and Mt. Sterling interurban railway in this city Tuesday morning. They began at the terminus of the Blue Grass Traction Company on Bank Row, north side of the court house, thence out Third street and Stoner avenue, continuing up the right bank of Stoner Creek to the city limits at Kennedy's Creek.

The line then crosses this creek and runs in rear of Mr. Jas. E. Clay's residence on to Spears' Mill, where it crosses Stoner; thence through the farms of Wm. Bedford, Ed Simms, W. A. Thomason and W. S. Jones on to North Middletown.

From there the route to Mt. Sterling has not been definitely settled upon, but is now under consideration, and will be determined by the time the engineers complete the survey to North Middletown.

Several of the promoters witnessed the beginning of this work that when finally completed means so much for Paris and North Middletown. This line will carry us right through one of the most favored sections of Bourbon county, and the route now being surveyed is the one mostly favored.

The surveying party is in charge of G. T. Horine, of Lexington, and he expects to reach North Middletown before the end of the week.

BIG FIRE AT LEXINGTON.

Fire originating from an unknown cause destroyed the wholesale grocery store of Curry, Tunis & Norwood at Lexington, Tuesday night, spreading to adjoining buildings and causing an aggregate loss of $150,000. The following are those damaged and their losses: Curry, Tunis & Norwood, $125,000 loss, with $110,000 insurance; Lexington Brewing Company, $15,000, fully insured; Clark & Howard, $1,000, no insurance; East Tennessee Telephone, $1,800; street car company, $300; C. & O., damage in depot and freight, unestimated.

WATCHMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Andy Noland, night watchman at the quarry at the new Capitol grounds, at Frankfort, was found burned to death near his fire Wednesday morning, and it is believed that a foul tragedy will be uncovered. It was thought at first that he had fallen asleep and caught fire, but it is now believed that the tragedy was not accidental. The police are investigating.

DEATHS.

Capt. James B. Clay, one of the most prominent Confederate veterans and thoroughbred breeders of Fayette county, died in his seat on a Pullman sleeper while enroute east Wednesday morning. He was first noticed as looking strange by the negro porter, who was shocked to find him sitting there dead with his newspaper clutched in his hand. He was a grandson of Henry Clay, and was 60 years of age.

Charles Chilton Moore, the noted infidel author and editor of the Blue Grass Blade, died Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his country home, Quakeracre, near Lexington, aged sixty-eight years. Heart disease was the cause of his death. Mr. Moore several days ago realized that his death was not far distant, and he said to the members of his family that he wished to die as he had lived and firm in the belief that he had advocated. He said that if his belief in free thought was wrong, then he wished to die wrong, for he did not intend to renounce his belief in those principles.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Lexington cemetery chapel. Either Dr. J. B. Wilson, of Cincinnati, or Hon. Moses Kaufman, of Lexington, will deliver the funeral address.

Mr. James B. Woodford died Monday at his home in Clark county of the infirmities of old age, being ninety-one years old. The deceased was a brother of the late John T. Woodford, of this county. He was a man of much intelligence, of firm convictions and unbending integrity. In his death Clark county has lost one of its best citizens.

JUDGE DUNDON'S COURT.

The examining trial of M. L. Woods, charged with suffering gaming was held before Judge Denis Dundon Tuesday morning. He was held to Circuit Court under $500 bond which he readily gave.

Sam Wilson, colored for running crap game was fined $50.

Ed. Stewart, Resin Middleton, Corbin Miller and "Deuch" Parker were tried on charge of gaming and dismissed.

The trials of Artie Green, Sam Rice, Charlie Columbia and George Williams, on same charge, are set for Saturday.

All of the above are results of the raid of Saturday night's crap game.

Sid Stout, charged with murder, was arraigned and his examining trial set for Monday.

George Thomas, charged with flourishing a gun, will be tried this morning.

SOUTHERN DEPOT DESTROYED.

Another fire coming on the heels of the one which destroyed the Curry, Tunis & Norwood building Tuesday night, at Lexington, kept the firemen busy Wednesday night. It destroyed the Cincinnati Southern depot and entailed a loss of $20,000. A noticeable fact to those who witnessed the two fires was that while the Curry, Tunis & Norwood building was built of brick, it was consumed in an incredibly short time, but that the Southern depot a frame structure, burned for several hours before being extinguished.

Dangers of Defective Plumbing!

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs or contagious disease to which the human system readily succumbs. Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures. If in doubt, consult us regarding the piping and repairing defective fixtures with "STANDARD" Porcelain Enameled Ware, acknowledged as the best sanitary equipment.

KENTUCKY'S INTEREST IN IMMIGRATION.

Senator James B. McCreary's bill now pending in the Senate of the United States to regulate immigration has a special interest for Kentucky, not only because it is the solution offered by one of the State Senators to a question of great national importance, but because Kentucky has of late shown a keen interest in this subject. The measure proposed by Senator McCreary increases the restriction upon undesirable immigrants and increases the facilities by which States with representatives at immigrant ports may secure from the great mass of immigrants that are pouring into the country, whatever they may need of the better class of agricultural and industrial laborers, and protect themselves measurably against immigrants of an undesirable kind.

This immigration question is an important one and a practical one. A step toward putting Kentucky in a better position, both for securing that influx of thrifty population, for which there is such a demand in many parts of the State, and for imposing some check upon the kind of immigration that the State does not want. It provides also for supplying needed information to investors and home seekers from other States. The bill should be passed without a dissenting voice.

THE PROPOSED REVENUE BILL.

The proposed Revenue bill scheduled to be introduced in the Kentucky Legislature this week, will meet with considerable opposition in both the Senate and House.

The Sheriffs are opposed to the provision changing the method of collecting taxes, while others are opposed to such provisions as effect them personally, or the interests they represent. The objections urged by the Sheriffs are that the collection of taxes will be made more difficult. At present the Sheriff can collect the taxes just as soon as he receives his books and the Equalization Board passes on the levy. He is able to visit the taxpayer at times when he knows they are prepared to pay their taxes, and thus make his collections at his leisure and keeps a good many names off the delinquent list. The proposed law prohibits collections outside of the Sheriff's office after November 1, when the penalty goes on. This will not only interfere with prompt payments, but a large proportion of the taxes will be paid at the last moment, and that would mean a rush that could not be handled without a greatly increased office force. Unless there is some good reason for the change the law should stand as it is.

SET A SENSIBLE PACE.

If Miss Alice Roosevelt has made a decision regarding weddings that will be followed by even one bride, she will have set such a sensible pace that if she has ever been foolish in the past, it is forgiven her. She says that she will have no bridesmaids, which is a most sensible decision to make. What earthly reason is there for having a long procession to the altar for any girl? In the less civilized countries, there is a procession of natives beating on tom-toms, then more natives beating the air, and then the bride, and more natives.

In this country there may be no beating of tom-toms or of the air, but there is a good deal of beating of tradesmen in order to give the bride a procession wedding, in which beating the unhappy parents of every girl asked to be bridesmaid must participate. It is a foolish piece of business and if Miss Roosevelt's decision shortens this parade a block or two, cutting it down to the preacher and the bride and groom, she will deserve a place in the Hall of Fame.

HE OUGHT TO KNOW BETTER.

Col. Jack Chinn, it is said, will be a candidate for Congress to succeed G. G. Gilbert in the Eighth District. He has informed a number of his friends that in event a primary is called he may yield to their solicitations to make the race. "It would be only to help in the fight to put Democracy in the saddle again," said he. "After that is accomplished, I will be willing to retire in favor of the younger fellows." Now honest "ingun", Senator Chinn, if you are in earnest about promoting the welfare of the Democratic party, don't run for Congress. You have the wrong idea about the whole matter. If you really wanted to help the old party along, you would not want to soar any higher than the State Senatorship. You are getting dizzy now and you might really advance the cause of Democracy in Kentucky if, when your present term was out, retire to your farm and take care of those twenty-one dogs you boast of owning. You're old enough to retire for the good of the order, old boy.

GEE WHIZ! WHAT NEXT.

Broken promises on the part of politicians are frequent, but the victim usually swallows the disappointment without much kicking. Here is an exception. Senator Anderson, of North Carolina, has brought suit against the Republican State Central Committee, and asks for damages in the sum of $20,000. His grievance is that the Central Committee promised him a big, fat Federal office, and they couldn't deliver the goods.

If a precedent like this is to be established Old Kentucky will soon be flooded with damage suits of this kind. Gee Whiz! It would come near busting the Frankfort Machine. The Hon. South Trimble had better watch out or he might have a few suits filed against him. You know he did not only promise with his mouth not to run again, but he "writ" it down.

THREE OF A KIND.

Jack Chinn is going to run for congress in the Eighth District. If he should be elected and our South Trimble re-elected what a pair it would make. Three usually beat a pair, but who would have the nerve to go up against this pair with any thing short of a full hand. And I like to forget, Billy Owens is after the Republican nomination in Louisville. This is indeed too much! Will somebody tell us what kind of a House this is in Washington that such as these are so desirous to be members?

MAYOR O'BRIEN'S FIRST VETO.

At the City Council meeting last night the Finance Committee made a report showing the financial condition of the city for the year ending with December 31, 1905. Everything was running smoothly until Mr. Sammie Brannon's application for restaurant license was read by the clerk. Mayor O'Brien then took the floor and said he wanted the Council to fully understand his position on this matter. He said that when he took his oath of office to enforce the city ordinances and entered upon his duties as Mayor he found a disgraceful state of affairs in Paris. That during week days he hardly ever saw a drunken man on our streets, but when Sunday came around you would see the streets crowded with drunken men and women, and that his first official act was to order the saloons closed on Sunday. He said he did this not only because he felt it his duty, but that at the same time he felt it was best for the saloon men that if they did not know it, he did, that the local option question was growing in sentiment here and they were themselves forcing the issue. That complaint has come to him from saloon men that where a restaurant was run in conjunction with a saloon that saloon has the advantage of the others. That Mr. Brannon's restaurant opened into his brother's saloon and if the Council granted him license they could not refuse a restaurant license to every saloonkeeper in Paris. If that was done it would handicap him in enforcing the Sunday law.

The vote was then called for and resulted as follows: Brannon, Dempsey, Duvall and Woods, voting yes, Parrish and Webb voting no.

The Mayor then said that the law gave him ten days to prepare his veto, which he would do.

This is but the beginning of the fight that will take place in the Council over this question.

Nothing more worthy of note transpired and the meeting adjourned.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain any quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

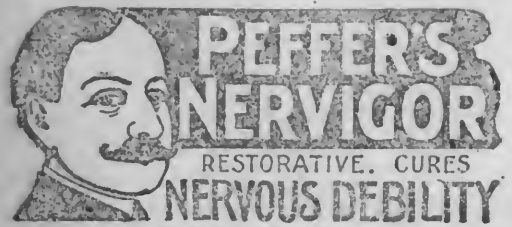

"Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine is made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and dragging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as sacredly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questionings and personal "examinations" are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative, two or three cathartic.

Machine-Set Type.

A Brief Description of the New Simplex Type Setting Machine Just Installed In Our Office.

THE MACHINE.

This week begins a new era in the Bourbon News office, and it is with pride that we invite our friends and readers to see our wonderful Simplex type setting machine, just installed.

The demand for plenty of fresh news matter, for late news in full detail right up to the hour of publication; the necessity for keeping in the front rank with the great development of the newspaper business during recent years; and the desire to give our readers as much as possible for their money,—these considerations among others led us to see that something swifter and better than hand type setting must be provided. After a long and careful investigation of the whole subject of mechanical type setting, we have finally installed the machine which is working such a revolution in the old methods of producing newspapers.

It is probable that on no labor saving machine has more time and money been expended than on a device to set and distribute type. For over a century inventors have struggled with the question, and while their efforts were partially successful, it has only been in the past ten years that a practical machine has been put on the market. It seems an impossibility that any combination of machinery other than that encompassed in the human body could separate nearly a hundred characters, pick them up again form them into words, combine the words into sentences and place them in readiness for that older but none the less marvelous result of brains—the modern printing press. The Simplex does it though, and does it five times as fast as the most rapid compositor.

It was easy to make mistakes in the old way. An e would slip into the h box or a p into the n box, but the Simplex can make no such mistakes. The operator can and doubtless will continue to make mistakes, but they will be fewer than before and the hardships of the proof reader will be considerably lessened and the sensibilities of the critical newspaper reader shocked less frequently than before.

It would be almost an impossibility to give an accurate description of this wonderful machine and the only way to get even a faint idea of its possibilities is to come and examine its workings. We publish a picture in this issue which is accurate as far as general appearances go, but of course gives no idea as to how it is operated. The Simplex typesetter uses just the same kind of type as is set by hand. Each individual type has a separate combination of "nicks" or notches cut on the edge, and on this fact is based the fundamental principle of the machine. As will be noticed in the picture, the body of the Simplex consists of two cylinders, one above and rotating on the other. In both cylinders, extending vertically their full length, are ninety parallel channels, each channel corresponding to some one type.

To distribute the type in the first place the channels of the upper cylinder are filled with "dead matter" (type that has been used) and is revolved step by step. At each step or movement of the distributor cylinder the bottom type of each line of dead matter is tested by the wards or channels of the lower cylinder, until it finds one exactly corresponding and drops in the lower magazine. The lower cylinder is stationary and at the bottom of each channel it contains a lever which is connected with a keyboard similar to that of a typewriter.

When a character on the keyboard is pressed down the lever is released the corresponding character from the channel and deposits it on a rapidly moving disc which carries it around the machine and to a "packer" which packs the letters into a line in their proper order, in an upright position, or, to use a printer's phrase, "standing on their feet." A long line of type rapidly forms in front of the operator, and when he has enough for his purpose he whirls his chair around, and with a small instrument called a "grab" separates enough from the long line to make the line measure he is setting. This he justifies or "spaces", and then takes another line and so on. When two person are working at the same time, one operates the keyboard and the other does the spacing. As soon as the line is spaced it is automatically pushed back to make room for another line and at the same time the matter is leaded if so desired.

After the machine is once in operation all that is necessary in the way of distributing is to place a galley of dead type on the side of the upper cylinder in a place prepared for it.

It does the work perfectly, and while it is apparently simple, it would be impossible to explain the "matter" intelligently, so we won't try, but again invite you to come and see for yourself.

The Simplex is small and compact, weighing about 1,100 pounds and occupying no more floor space than an ordinary cook stove, and while it took brains and lots of them to invent it, it is of remarkably simple construction and not at all liable to get out of repair.

We have had it in operation only a few days, but that is long enough to discover its true worth, and every time we see it work, with almost human intelligence, we feel like taking off our hats in its presence.

It is certainly the best and most wonderful machine that ever graced a country print shop.

A FAMILY SAFEGUARD

Dr. Green arranges with the Niece of Dr. Boschee to handle her famous Uncle's Great Throat and Lung Cure.

The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chilly sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children proof against all contagious diseases.

Such a medicine is Boschee's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles.

The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr. Green from the niece of the famous Dr. Boschee, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere.

STOCK AND CROP.

—Geo. W. Ellis bought of John T.
Stuart and Mrs. Nellie Highland, 17,000 pounds of tobacco at 8 and 5 cents.

—Fishback Bros., of Nicholas county, sold to W. S. Dudley one barn of 50,000 pounds of tobacco at 10 cents.

—A number of Bourbon county farmers sold their tobacco in Lexington this week. All seem satisfied with prices received.

—H. T. Longbottom, near Shawhan, sold his farm of 38 acres to James Estes, for $4,200. Mr. Longbottom bought the farm of Mr. Estes last December for $4,000. Before buying the above farm Mr. Longbottom bought a 45-acre farm near Berry for $3,500 and the next week he sold it for $3,700.

—The wheat crop is looking splendid.
The plant has been growing all winter and is finely rooted. It was beginning to suffer from the dry weather but the snow which fell Sunday night will remove all trouble from that source. If nothing happens to it from now on the harvest will be a bountiful one.

—Goddard Grundy, of Marion county, claims the record for lambs so far this year. He has ten ewes which gave birth to twenty lambs last week and every one is living and thriving.

—As agent for E. F. Spears & Son, of this city, John B. Foster, of Stanford, has bought about 1,000 acres of hemp at 4 3-4 cents per pound. This will bring to the farmers of of Lincoln county in the neighborhood of $60,000.

—The U. S. Government statistics gives the following figures about Kentucky's corn crop last year: Acreage, 3,195,072; yield per acre, 29.7 bushels;
total production, 94,893,633 bushels;
price, 43 cents, or a total value of $40,- 804,264.

horses in Bourbon and Fayette at an ter, of Millersburg, sold five, at from $200 to $750 and Shropshire Bros. sold several.

to Ed. Geers last Thursday the mare Lady Gail Hamilton (3) 2:11 1-2 and the stallion Bonnie Russell 2:10 3-4 for training purposes.

—John Hutsell, of Bath, purchased a car load of mules in that county, for $200 each, and shipped them to the Southern market for the cotton trade.

—Messrs. T. K. Shuff and W. T.
Griffith, of Georgetown, sold to Mr. W.
S. Barager, of Shelbyville, for Gen.
John B. Castleman, of Louisville, their fine black saddle horse at a reported price of $1,000.

—The J. A. Howerton farm was not sold as recently reported, as one of the heirs refused to sign the deed. Mr.
Howerton, trustee of the Warfield estate has rented the farm to Mr. Earl H. Sellers for 1906. Mr. Sellers has sub-rented the farm to Mr. W. C.
Goodloe for the year, reserving the house, garden and orchard. Mr. Sellers will occupy the house. Mr. Good-

THE FAIR

No Middleman's Finger
in This Pie.

Most China stores get their supply from importers, but we are our own importers. There is no middleman's finger in our pie. We import all our fine China direct from Europe, without anybody's intervention, and thereby save the middleman's profit not only to ourselves but to our customers.

That's one of the main reasons why The Fair prices on fine Imported China are less than you customarily meet with. Another reason is that the bulk of our purchases from abroad are what are known as "discontinued patterns," that is to say, patterns of which no more are to be manufactured and which the makers are therefore willing to dispose of at a discount. They are every whit as good as the new patterns that replace them, but in the manufacturers' sense of the term they are job lots.
We buy them at 20 to 30 per cent. off usual cost and sell them on the same basis. Do you wonder that The Fair has a wide reputation for the excellence of its China bargains? Here are some China prices to illustrate the foregoing, every piece real China.

TME FAIR.A KENTUCKIAN TO THE END.

Senator Blackburn stated positively to a Louisville Times correspondent
the other day that he had no intention of removing from Kentucky to the National Capital at the end of his term as Senator. Gossip to the effect that he contemplated establishing himself as a lawyer in Washington was renewed when the Senator traded his place as a member of the Naval Affairs Committee with Senator Mallory for the place on the District of Columbia Committee.

"I haven't the remotest idea of leaving Kentucky," said Senator Blackburn. "I have lived in Woodford and shall die there. I am one of the few men who can say that he lives within sight of the place where his father was born 118 years ago.

"It would be as well to expect an old tree to flourish when transplanted to new soil as to expect me to become a citizen of any other place. I shall remain a Kentuckian to the end."
